N.Y. April 30 1860

Dear Sir

The enclosed letter came to hand this morning Mr. Edgell is in a letter received yesterday says "I have directed Rev L. F. Clark of Whitingville who wishes to know where Pres Marsh was to direct to your care. His people are able to do grand things for Colleges. One of them you know recently left us $500. They may have a surplus left from Dean Fletcher Estate to apply to Colleges especially if solicited." The $500 alluded to has been paid—Should be glad to know how you get on-

Sincerely yours

T. Baldwin
