New York June 30th 1859

Rev S. H. Marsh

Dear Br

Yours of the 28th inst came to hand this morning – I can see no objection to your occupying however when the society time comes or to having the avails go for benefit of Pacific University if the Pastors & churches would prefer it.

Mr. Gaylord called on me & I told him as they had as yet no college & were not prepared to make an application to the Society his work would be preparatory & he must act independent of the Society – He is doing what you did before you went to Oregon I remembered to Mr. G. that if anyone in general why they were not under the Society he could say that they were not yet sufficiently advanced to apply – It is not desirable that such calls should be [illegible text] but the Society cannot control the matter –

I enclose a letter from Oregon which I took out of the office one morning & not looking carefully at the subscriptions I concluded it was for me & from Mr. Durant of California – I accordingly opened it without hesitation & read one sentence – but only one – as I saw it was for you & not myself.

I have no time to write to day – Let me hear from you

Sincerely Yours

Theron Baldwin

P.S. Mr. Edgell will be home about the 4th of July.
