Pittsburgh Thursday
Date Unknown [1866-1867]

My dearest Lizzie,

I did not write yesterday for I could not find a moment for it. Being here reminds me [illegible] of the time when I came home with you. I called at the American last night to see a gentleman. The Hotel where we went. I have not been up so far as the Seminary. This has been a most interesting occasion.

When I get where I can write I must tell you about it. Now company [are?] coming down with the parlor where where I am writing – I am billeted at Mr. Glapps.

I must stop –
your Sidney
