The Vision Ergonomics Laboratory is that better vision and a better visual environment improve the comfort and work efficiency of people who perform critical visual tasks.

The Mission of the Vision Ergonomics Laboratory is to use scientific methods to understand the effects of vision and visual environment upon human performance and comfort and to apply this knowledge to improve vision performance in the workplace.