Dear Sir

I wanted especially to see you before leaving for New London—in reference to some Report of your collections — The financial year of the Society really closed on Monday — but as several matters are uncertain it will be necessary to keep the accounts open —We must have in the results of your operations —How early can they be done? I will write Dr. McEwen that we shall rely on his $200 still hope to see you before go to N London

Yours

T. Baldwin
