My Dear Sir,

I enclose a letter of introduction to Mr. Haines & while I have his confidence as I suppose – yet if you could get a letter from one of the Morse's or Dr Prince it would be ten times better-- Mr. H. is an Old School man.

I do not at present know of any Lady who would go to Oregon & teach. The Rev F.A. Adams of Orange has a brother in law the Rev James Means Who is to take charge of a school in Auburndale Mass in Nov--Who has been over-run with applications for situations-- as I have been told-- Possibly some of those applicants would be willing to go to Oregon-- & also be what you want-- If I recollect right Mr. Adams said that Mr. Means could be addressed during the present month at Lebanon N. H.

I expect to leave for Boston to night but may not be absent more than two days_ Let me see you when you are here.

The feelings of Dr Storrs have been sorely tried in reference to Western Reserve College & it would not be strange if his judgment should be warped somewhat-- When the College was founded there was no Oberlin & communication between that country & Yale College difficult-- We can have but one safe rule of action & that is to do what seems best under the circumstances.

Sincerely Yours
Theron Baldwin
