N.Y. April 30th 1859

Rev S. H. Marsh

Dear Sir

I notice by the papers this morning that Mr. Hoadley has leave of absence for six months & expects to go to Europe – When he expects to start I do not know – should he not return before your departure for Oregon – it would be very important for you to see him before he leaves.

A letter came this morning from the Rev. Dennis Platt our Connecticut agent who is at this time in Central New York – in which he says – “Br Hunt wants Br Marsh to visit Ithaca in July, August or Sept – will keep the door open”

I wrote you yesterday in full & can hardly expect that I have written so clearly that you will get my exact meaning in all cases – If not – shall be glad to explain & I hope you will write me freely –

In haste

Yours [illegible text]

Theron Baldwin
