Dear Wife

I have changed my plans. Think I shall come right home. There is no use in wasting strength here now

I shall [illegible] collect my subscription with the understanding that The rest is to be raised at some future Time.

I have been distressed for several days with the piles or an inflammation of the rectum. Have been taking medicine and keeping comparatively quiet. Have seen and talked with Mr. Corbett. Think now that I shall start back at the first of May – you will not have time to write after getting this Love to all

Sidney
