10-25-1866

Sidney Harper Marsh Letter to Wife - Oct. 25, 1866

Sidney H. Marsh

Follow this and additional works at: http://commons.pacificu.edu/shm

Recommended Citation

This Correspondence Transcription is brought to you for free and open access by the Pacific University Archives at CommonKnowledge. It has been accepted for inclusion in President Sidney Harper Marsh (1853 - 1879) Manuscript Collection by an authorized administrator of CommonKnowledge. For more information, please contact CommonKnowledge@pacificu.edu.
Oct 25-. 1866

Dear Lizzie.

I inclose an ivory pin. The vine + cluster are the symbol of fruitfulness – the highest compliment that can be paid a woman.

I sent a package by express yesterday. The American express. To be left at the Express office [Warren] til call – ed] for. I shall be anxious Til I hear of its reception

I saw a bonnet in a show case just like yours except it was more so [*drawing of square] your was so [drawing of a square] – yours have a well defined back. There were extended white Strings so [] besides the ribbons, It had a white bow across The forehead instead of the little White feathers in yours--Just Such a feather on top. Tho [illegible] behind + in front + down The lapel was very narrow. on The whole not worth much More- it was no more elegant. + of no better material – [illegible] such a bonnet – reminding me of yours at once + They asked $.25. – Now I have written you all this. To prove to you what a good buyer I am. + Then I flatter myself I have really sent you a very neat bonnet.

I am in high spirits

The interest taken in our cause is unmistakable
yet I can see no result til after the meeting in Brooklyn.

I shall [illegible] a few days in mailing and writing.

I did not send Collins letter as it contained a statement about Mary
That I wanted.

They [sailed] San F
On the 24th all [illegible] but as some were partly sick
most of the way- [Illegible].
He did not tell who were the sick ones. They expected to sail for Or on the 29th.

Yours

Sidney