Oct. 31. [1868]

My Lovely Wife,

I have a letter and sealed in my packet for you which I forgot to drop in the letter-box. I got this morning an overcoat for Whitlock, a coat an [illegible] for Molly, & a pair of shoes also. I put a knife for Henry in the coat pocket. The [cook?] [pork] [et]. I [fear] that the [cook?] [will?] not [fit?]. [but?] if two lay as I think it [as he?] will [grow?] [to?] it. I had it [illegible] all round As [soon?] as I hear of your [fit]. Tiny the others will [smith] [three].

I hoped [I] have [heard] this morning. as it is just a [nuk] [illegible] [thy muk]. I am [huy] [papar] ing an [illegible] for my [eaves]-If many over state sick I should have heard again this [morning].

You [have?] [woman] to the a just and [happin] [thought?]
Lizzie for you have the [dear] children [to?] care for, you are not alone as I am.

Shall write more before I mail this.

I dont know but your [next] something more for yourself _ I hope you have take me if you do..

I am almost ashamed to [illegible] my little [niacy] such a sack, it is [craved] & common, but it will do - & my [power] is getting low. Tell me by the way if you want more money.

I get once is a while almost [unindurably] [in?] [patient?]. I [went?] to in you all so much. I don't know how to sit [hem] & [wait], but is a long road that has no turning & I suffer it will [you?] & by [the] [way] & I shall go out to this & have you in NY [illegible] again.

Patience patience. [til] [there] [illegible],

yours Sidney

You have more [than] me how [your] [up] gets [on]. Is it well?

Friday no letter this [morn]- ing. You have got my letter telling of [sending] your bonnet, buy how not yet got the things, & am mailing til you do to [illegible] free [you] [niece]. is not that it. I think the things must get to you. am anxious to hear. I am waiting for elections to [thanspin] before doing anything. I called at Rob [Buliet] last [illegible] & [illegible] Mr B. for the first time. I called also at [Charles] & saw Mrs [Erhaul].

It is [lonely] [matter] here . . .

Yours - Lizzie [illegible]

Love & admire <- [neperd] you [Move] [thou] I can tell. [illegible] you to [live] it? If you don't I will write it all over again & upon it [tell] [you] [do] - Sidney
